AIMS OF THE DEPARTMENT

The English Department provides classes and support for English majors, English minors, and general studies students. In Freshman Composition and Research and Professional Writing all students at the university learn how to write coherent, well-organized essays. In the junior year students take a literature class which requires writing on literary topics. The department helps English majors and minors understand and appreciate American, English, and world literature, as well as linguistics and advanced composition.

Students may elect courses which prepare them for careers as secondary English teachers or for graduate study in English. A major in English is also an important asset to any student who wishes to specialize in several professional areas: law, medicine, business, public relations, or federal service.

General Information

ENGL 121 and 220 must be completed in sequence during the freshman and sophomore years before any other course in English can be taken.

COMPOSITION COURSES

ENGL 021 Composition Review 3 hours
This class is required of students whose SAT Critical Reading score is below 400 or whose ACT English score is below 17. Those students who enroll in ENGL 121 and demonstrate in their introductory essay that they need reinforcement in basic mechanics, usage, and structure will be advised to enroll in this class. Credit will not apply toward graduation. A basic review of spelling, punctuation, and grammar. Special emphasis will be given to the construction of a coherent paragraph. Students may not withdraw from this course. (Fall, Spring)

ENGL 121 Freshman Composition 3 hours
Prerequisite: Minimum SAT Critical Reading score of 400, a minimum ACT English score of 17, a minimum grade of C in ENGL 021, or successful completion of the ESL program with a score of 80 on the Michigan Test of Language Proficiency.
This course focuses on individual writing processes, the production of quality expository and argumentative prose for a variety of purposes and audiences, and the introduction of information literacy skills. The course also emphasizes the development and use of critical thinking and reading skills essential for writing college-level papers. (Fall, Spring)

ENGL 201 Approaches to Literary Research and Criticism 3 hours
Prerequisite: ENGL 121, 220. ENGL 220 can be taken concurrently.
The course introduces the concepts, applications and research involved in literary criticism. The student will be introduced to literary genres and terms. Writing of literary criticism will be the main emphasis of the class, including the use of primary sources, the construction of an essay, and the correct documentation format as specified in the Modern Language Association Stylebook. English majors will begin the process of senior portfolio development. This course fulfills the requirement for UNIV 201: Research in an Academic Discipline as specified in SWAU's Quality Enhancement Plan.

ENGL 220 Research and Professional Writing 3 hours
Prerequisite: ENGL 121 and sophomore status
This course focuses on elements of research and information literacy skills, writing using sources, and professional career writing. Structured for students from a variety of academic disciplines, the course emphasizes the rhetorical principles of audience, purpose, and genre and practice with APA/MLA documentation. A major focus includes critically evaluating scholarly and popular resources, both hard copy and electronic. (Fall, Spring)

ENGL 242 Writing Seminar 3 hours
Prerequisite: ENGL 121, 220
This course emphasizes both the theoretical and practical aspects fundamental to successful writing or the teaching of writing in a particular genre. Topic or emphasis will vary depending on the instructor or sequence when the course is taught. Students may repeat the course for credit if topic, emphasis, or genre differs from the previous class. (Fall)

ENGL 415 Advanced Composition 3 hours
Prerequisite: ENGL 121, 220
An advanced course in the art of rhetoric. Students will study the components of the rhetorical context in which all communication exists. The writing process will be reviewed in detail. Special attention will be devoted to style. Students will develop the ability to make appropriate rhetorical choices. (Spring, odd years)

LITERATURE COURSES

ENGL 211 World Masterpieces: Ancient to Enlightenment 3 hours
Prerequisite: ENGL 121, 220
